Japan is a very long country, so make sure you need this, and not just the Tokyo version- the Tokyo guide book covers the most popular excursions that you can do in a day on the bullet trains. The part about Japanese customs is worth reading, take note of the section about public toilets. They are as weird as they sound.

As with other DK Eyewitness Travel Guides I have used, this guide on Japan has been useful for the planning of my trip and knowing more about the country before I travelled. However this guide is a little less informative than I expected. It has good summary of the Japanese history, culture, art, etc.

Asia | ; Japan | ; The combination of modernity and ancient traditions makes for some remarkable places to visit in Japan. Teeming cities, such as Tokyo and Osaka, typify modern Japan: in love with ultra-new technologies, bright colors, manga comics, and quirky fashions.. Thanks to the Japanese sense of order and courtesy, however, a sense of calm prevails even in the busiest urban areas, and ...
